GETTING AT IT.

The New York Public Invited to Communicate Fraudulent Particulars,

Which They May Have Obtained Regarding the Late Election.

The Notorious Buchanan Finds Acquittal by a Pennsylvania Jury.

Alliger Discharged--Mail Bag Stolen--General News Notes.

Getting at It.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The following was issued last night:

TAMMANY HALL, N. Y., Nov. 30.—The sub-committee of the committee on organization of the Tammany hall democratic general committee, appointed to investigate fraud, corruption and intimidation practiced at the late election, is in possession of evidence which clearly demonstrates that the republican vote was enormously increased by reason of systematic colonization, unblushing bribery and the most cowardly intimidation of workingmen by their employers. At the proper time and place these proofs will be made public. The sub-committee believing that a great deal of valuable information can be secured through the co-operation of the public to this end, invites all persons in possession of any evidence of illegal registration or voting, bribery, or intimidation, to communicate the particulars to the chairman of the sub-committee at Tammany hall without delay, and in this way expose those who have violated the purity of the elective franchise in order that deserved punishment may be enforced.

Mail Bag Found.

DETROIT, Dec. 1.—At Mt. Clemens, in this state, last evening, while the mail carrier was waiting at the depot for the train going to Detroit, some sneak thief stole one of the letter bags from the platform. As soon as the loss was discovered, the postmaster procured a lantern, and by the aid of a slight snow traced the thief over a mile, when the bag was found cut open and the letters rifled of their contents. There was more than the usual number of registered letters in the bag, but the amount of the loss cannot be known. The thief succeeded in making good his escape.

Saloonkeeper Murdered.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Dec. 1.—Evidence of a cold blooded and deliberate murder has been brought to light in this city. The victim of the foul deed was Mr. John S. Sapp, a saloonkeeper, on Fifth street, aged about 56 years. The body of Mr. Sapp was found on the floor of his saloon, about 8 o'clock, with the skull crushed in and the side of the face terribly cut or bruised, the result of a blow from some heavy blunt instrument. The wounds were sufficient to have caused death almost instantly. Small clue.

A Freak of Nature.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 1.—Quite a sensation was produced here to-day by an unexpected freak of lightning. The day had continued foggy, without any sign of rain, when the clouds gathered and the whole city was startled by two successive shocks of lightning sounding much like big explosions. The spire of McKendree church was struck, the lightning passing to the earth accompanied by smoke, which led to the erroneous belief that the church had been ignited, and a fire alarm was sounded and the engines brought out.

Assembling in Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Dec. 1.—There are less than forty members of congress in the city. Among this number there is not a single one who advocates an extra session of the Forty-seventh congress, or the indulgence of any tactics which will bring one on. The present outlook is that the coming session will be a business one in every particular. The disposition is to keep politics as much as possible out of the debate especially so in the house. The talk among democratic members of congress is to hold a caucus Saturday night to decide what business shall be transacted this session.

The Census Report.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—General Francis A. Walker, superintendent of the census, has submitted his regular report to the secretary of the interior. He says that although the work of taking the tenth census is substantially completed, returns have been received from all but seven of the enumeration districts, it will probably be two or three weeks before the office will be able to present complete statistics of the population of the country, and therefore considers it advisable to postpone to a future report all mention of the results of the enumeration, and also all discussion of the methods in use, as well as any suggestions which may be required to be made of changes in the census law with reference to future enumerations. The report says that every year and every month which can be saved in the compilation and publication of the census statistics, adds appreciably to their value, and recommends congress be asked to authorize the printing by special contracts, under the supervision of the secretary of the interior, and if it be thought desirable, also of the printing committees of the two houses of congress, of the several reports of the census as fast as prepared. The accounts of 28,410 enumerators have already been settled, involving a total expenditure of upwards of $1,820,000. Only about 12,000 accounts remain unadjusted, and there is no reason to doubt that the month of December will see all the enumerators paid for their services, except only in cases where suspension is required for reasons unmistakably connected with some fault of the enumerator.

Old Directors of the Erie Road.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—At the annual election for directors of the New York, Lake Erie & Western Railway company the old board was re-elected. President Jewett cast 800,000 votes, representing four-fifths of the stock of the company. Most of the votes he cast as proxy. About 100,000 other votes were deposited by the stockholders. The annual statement shows, it is said, a surplus in earnings of over $1,500,000 after the payment of the fixed charges and interest on the bonded debt. The operating expenses have been materially reduced through the adoption of a narrow gauge track and the use of heavy locomotives.

Death of an Old Citizen.

Special Dispatch to The Sentinel.

THORNTOWN, Ind., Dec. 1.—Mr. George W. Hazelrigg, a prominent merchant and an influential citizen of this city, died at his residence yesterday, after a brief illness. Mr. Hazelrigg was a son of Maj. H. G. Hazelrigg, who died some time since. He was a member in good standing of the Thorntown Lodge, No. 113; F. and A. M., and will be buried to-morrow according to the beautiful and impressive ritual of that order.

On the Boom.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 1.—Advices from Honolulu describe the eruption of Marine Loo, now in progress, as one of the grandest ever witnessed. It broke out on November 5, about six miles from the summit, the crater throwing out two great streams of lava, one of which is thirty miles long, and one to 200 yards wide and about twenty feet deep. Terrible explosions accompany its flow. Some fears are entertained for the safety of Hilo, although the flow seems turning in another direction.

Hanlan-Laycock.

LONDON, Dec. 1—At a meeting this afternoon, articles of agreement were signed for a sculling match between Laycock and Hanlan over the Thames championship course, to take place January 17, 1881, at 2.30 o'clock for £500 a side, the Sportsman challenge cup and the championship. The parties deposited £250 aside, the balance to be deposited on the 6th of January.

An Outrage.

CORK, Dec. 1.—A barbarous outrage has been committed near Tralee, on a bailiff, who was in charge of a house from which the tenants had been evicted. A party of armed men broke into the house and slit the bailiff's ears. The bailiff fainted from loss of blood. A police hut had been erected at New Pallas without disturbance.

Brayton on the Way to the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Captain Dougherty, acting Indian agent at Crow Creek agency, is expected to reach Washington in a few days, with a delegation of Brulé Sioux chiefs. These Indians have conceded to the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad the right-of-way through their reservation, and wish to come to this city to settle the details.

COLLEGE COUNTS.

Meeting of the Ohio, Indiana and Tennessee Electoral College.

The Two Former Cast Their Votes for Garfield and Arthur

While Tennessee Comes to the Front for Hancock and English.

Telegraphic News From the Foreign World With Comments Thereon.

Ohio Electoral College.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 1.—The Ohio electoral college reassembled at 9 o'clock this morning. The oath of office was then administered by Chief Justice McIlvane. N. W. Goodline, of Summit, was chosen permanent chairman and J. Q. A. Campbell, of Logan, permanent secretary. After the reports of the commissioners had been received and acted upon, the electors proceeded by lot to choose a messenger to carry the official vote of the college to Washington City and to the district judge at Cincinnati. J. Q. A. Campbell was selected as messenger to Washington and J. P. Billingsly as messenger to Cincinnati. The college then took recess until 12 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The electoral college re-assembled in the senate chamber and was called to order by N. H. Goodhul. A call of the roll showed all the electors present. The judges of the supreme court and other leading citizens were present as spectators. The college then proceeded to ballot. Each elector as his name was called depositing in a hat a card bearing the words: "For President of the United States James A. Garfield." The votes were then counted and the announcement made that all the votes of the college had been cast for Garfield. The college then proceeded to ballot for vice-president. Chester A. Arthur was declared the recipient of all the votes of the college. A resolution was adopted directing the secretary to notify Messrs. Garfield and Arthur that the vote of the Ohio electoral college had been unanimously cast for them as president and vice-president respectively. Mr. Dillingly who was selected by lot this morning to carry the vote to Cincinnati, declined to serve, and A. D. Bullock, of Cincinnati, was selected in his stead. After signing the necessary certicates the college adjoured sine die. The electors will leave in a body for Cleveland this evening and to-morrow will visit General Garfield at Mentor.

The Baltimore Grain Muddle.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 1.—The committee of the corn and flour exchange held another conference to day with the officials of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad in regard to the advanced rates for storage in the elevators of that railroad company. W. S. Young, chairman of the committee, reported to the exchange that nothing definite was accomplished, but the conference was conciliatory. He said the railroad company proposed not to advance the rate of storage if holders of grain in the elevators would remove it to other places of storage. The company agreeing to put grain in barges and receive it again in the elevators without additional charges, also that the railroad company would tow barges.

Sporting Matters.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—Laycock's friends in Sidney, Australia, have sent a cable dispatch announcing that they had deposited £350 to aid him in making up his stake in his match with Hanlan, and that more money will follow. Hanlan wishes the title to the championship of the world to be contested in Toronto bay.

Traveling Electors.

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 1—After the meeting in Columbus to-day to declare the vote of the state, the Ohio presidential electors will take a train for Cleveland where they will remain over night and to-morrow morning will go by special train in a body to Mentor to call on General Garfield.

An Eccentric Will.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 1.—John T. Crawford, an eccentric man who died about two weeks ago leaving an estate valued at from $30,000 to $100,000, was reported to have made provision for building a home for aged colored men. The will has been opened and it is found that he has left his entire fortune for that purpose, directing that the home shall be built on a tract of eighteen and a half acres at College Hill. The will cannot be probated owing to the death of one witness, Wm. Van Vleck, jr., and the absence of the other, Jno. K. French, who enlisted several months ago in the regular army and is supposed to be some where in the west.

The Italian Vote.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—A correspondent at Rome, discussing the vote in the chamber of deputies, says: It must be considered that fifteen of the majority were republicans who only support the Cairoli cabinet as being the most favorable for their designs, and that many others voted for Signor Macini's motion without altogether approving the policy of the government, but wishing to avoid the crisis and hasten the discussion of the reforms.

Positive Proposal Wanted.

VIENNA, Dec. 1.—The overtures of the Turkish minister at Athens have not been rejected, but as the condition for opening regular negotions Greece has asked Turkey to make a positive proposal. This conciliatory attitude is the effect of the unwillingness of the powers to resort to force in favor of Greece, and a small response on the part of the inhabitants of Thesalia and Eperus to the Greek attempt to form volunteer corps.

Bandry D'Asan's Conduct.

PARIS, Dec. 1.—Gambetta has not thought fit to consult the chamber of deputies regarding Bandry D'Asan's letter asking the chamber to be requested to sanction the proceedings under article 341, penal code, against the president, vice president and questions for arbitrarily placing him under arrest on November 11. Gambetta considers the letter an aggravation of Bandry D'Asan's conduct.

Arrested on Arrival.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—Mrs. Susan Willis, alias Fletcher, was arrested on the steamer Anchonia on the arrival of that vessel from Now York, on a charge of fraud by means of alleged spiritualism. She and her husband left London two months ago for America. The husband is wanted here in connection with the same fraud, but he remains in America.

Big Sheep Lift.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 1.—The Persian minister, Massenkhan, has sent the porte particulars of atrocities by Sheik Abdullah and demanding his punishment. A body of Albanians have lifted 1,600 Montenegrin sheep. The Montenegrins protested, but the porte declined to respond with any ability.

Death of a Clergyman.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 1.—Rev. Dr. Frederick Lehmann, president of the Capital university, in this city, for twenty years, and president of the synodical conference of the Lutheran church of the United States, died to-day of cancer of the mouth.

Vermont.

MONTPELIER, Dec. 1.—The elector of this state cast an unanimous vote of five for Garfield and Arthur for president and vice president of the United States.

The New York College.

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 1.—The entire vote of the Electoral College was given for Garfield and Arthur for president and vice president respectively. The announcement was received with applause.

Indiana Electors.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 1.—The Indiana electors met here this morning and cast the full fifteen votes of the state for Garfield and Arthur.

To Be Hanged.

QUEBEC, Dec. 1.—A dispatch from Arthohaska says Lachance, the Bulstrade murderer, has been sentenced to be hanged on January 28.

Fire in Ireland.

DUBLIN, Dec. 1.—The house of the sisters of mercy in Tuam county, Galway, has been destroyed by fire.

Bully for Tennessee.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 1.

BY E. A. K. HACKETT.

THE Ohio electoral college met yesterday, but do not seem to have been pressed with time. They adjourned until to-day.

IT IS understood the pope is preparing an allocution condemning the hostile attitude to the church on the part of France and other nominally Catholic powers.

OUR overworked president, Mr. Hayes and his cohorts, at great inconvenience, found time to dedicate Pardee hall, at Eaton, Pa., last night. Hayes will now work nights to make up for lost time.

WHAT has long been a surmise has become a certainty. The large movements of gold in this country are at last attracting serious attention in London, and it is not unlikely that the Bank of England will use its large power to prevent further heavy shipments.

THE New York Sun calls upon Marshall Jewell to publish all the political promises he made during the campaign, also a transcript of his political correspondence. The account would be funny indeed, and Jewell might make his fortune out of it. He may have some money, now, but is not credited with too much wit.

THE appointment of Mr. Shaw Lefevre, secretary to the admiralty as first commissioner of works, is, according to the London Times, significant. Mr. Lefevre's views in regard to Irish land are well known. He has made himself a special champion of the clauses of the land act of 1870, which are intended to facilitate the purchase of holdings by occupiers. In conducting Irish measures especially, he will doubtless prove an able lieutenant to Gladstone and Forster.

WHAT shall we do to be saved—if this scarcity of coal continues? This question is spoken lightly, but there is a world of meaning conveyed to the poor man, and he drops his paper, if it be so he can afford one, and stares blankly at the coal fire before him. Here we have just started on our winter's pilgrimage, and to have this fresh disaster thrust upon us is indeed an affliction. How long it will last and how great will be the suffering, are only to be guessed at.

A DISPATCH from Washington to the Chicago Tribune says an intimate friend of President-elect Garfield says that Senator Blaine went to Washington at the special request of General Garfield, for a confidential conference, and that they breakfasted together at the latter's house. There is little doubt that at this interview General Garfield tendered to Senator Blaine first the position of secretary of state, and second that of secretary of the treasury, both of which Mr. Blaine declined.

TO THE EDITOR.—In one of your editorials of this evening you stated that Garfield's majority was 6,642, which is not correct. It is only 3,771, since the Eighth district has not reported; the Chicago papers of last Monday gave the last figures. Now then, you, as editor of a democratic paper, why don't you give the correct figures, as there are many bets on 5,000 majority unpaid?

SUBSCRIBER.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Nov. 29, 1880.

THE SENTINEL stated some days since that Garfield's plurality was 3,771. Since then the Eighth district has reported, and, despite the fact that it was not right, the votes were allowed to be inserted in the returns, and these returns, final, give a plurality of 6,642. Elections are decided by the final returns in this country, and the vote of Indiana gives Garfield a plurality of 6,642. What the Chicago papers say cannot change the result.

THE WINTER SEASON.

From the excessive coldness of the past two weeks, and from the fact that to day is the first of December, it is fair to presume that the winter season has begun, and from the above given sources it is safe to predict that it will be a much longer and colder winter than that of last year. And how this knowledge brings home to the laboring class a comprehensive idea of their situation. and a sense of foreboding even now prevails in many a household, for the head thereof knoweth not what the end may be. In an old-fashioned cold winter, such as it seems probable we shall experience, there are many crippling circumstances. The widow's cruse of oil goes faster, the basket of coal does not last so long as it does in milder weather. Children need more food, more warmth in the stove and clothing; so that the same wages that would keep a family in tolerable comfort in such a winter as we had last year do not stretch quite so far in the cold season. Then, too, there is a large number of delicate persons who can manage to work in a mild winter, and can keep themselves from want. Old people, and the frail in health among the young, who need no charity, but do need to be kept from exposure, to whom a mild December means a happy Christmas, and the bitter weather a sick bed—these are the ones to be taken account of. Those who are not strong, and yet have to go out to work, must be considered in severe weather, as one storm without sufficient clothing, it may be, will make them helpless. It is not the intention of THE SENTINEL to discourage any who would otherwise struggle through with a lighter heart, nor do we wish to encourage too much reliance upon others. But the thought comes that there are those who need to look after their home affairs as promptly as possible, and others who require looking after at once by the good Samaritans who devote themselves to this very essential work. There seems to be an impression that the work of the charity societies will be light this year, comparatively, because of the general prosperity. Employment is brisk and times are good, and therefore, the argument goes to show that few "deserving" folks will apply for help. But, alas, this may prove a great mistake. We do not mean to be discouraging to such, nor to break down the spirit of robust self-help and courage that the feeblest of these workers may have to cheer them, but we do wish to remind the thoughtful and benevolent that the most prosperous "hard winter" will still be very hard for many, and that when all is done that organization can do towards detecting imposters and finding work for the needy, only half is done.

A PRECEDENT.

The action of the democratic state officers in refusing to claim an elector, who was elected through a blunder on the part of republicans, stands out in startling contrast with the underhand and despicable manner in which Mr. Hayes was seated, and affords an example in one sense that may be followed with great credit in future presidential campaigns. It says in the plainest language that the democratic party is the party of the people, and will suffer loss rather than defeat the will of the people through a technicality. Legally Indiana was entitled to cast one vote for General Hancock and William H. English, but morally it was cast and gerous plague to the country. The matter is now and has been canvassed and discussed by the leading papers, but these two phases present themselves to all. In altering the returns the officials did an indiscreet act; in allowing a mistake to be rectified they acted wisely. And let this aspect of the case continue before the people for four years. There is to be an election then, and if the result reaches any degree of closeness, the effect of this matter will be felt. It were better for the republican party that this had not occurred.

IT must pay to have such friends as Jay Gould, W. H. Vanderbilt, John Mackey and several other of the monied men of the country. But General Grant seems to be the fortunate possessor of the affections of these men, and the question arises, what has he done that should make him worth from $25,000 to $50,000 to each of these men? Did he do anything while president of the United States that should entail any future financial benefit to himself? It looks as if he did. When it is known that J. M. Forbes, of Boston, for himself and friends, heads the pension list with $50,000, Jay Gould, W. H. Vanderbilt, John Mackey, the California Bonanza king, each put down $25,000, Ex-Gov. E. D. Morgan, Congressman L. P. Morton, W. H. Dinsmore, president of the Adams express company, and republican elector in the state of New York, W. B. Astor, John Hoey, of the Adams express company, and several others put down $5,000 each, it looks as if there was an almost unlimited stock of patriotism in the crowd, or a heap of rascality.

THE sub-committee of the committee on organization of the Tammany hall democratic general committee held a meeting in New York on last evening and formulated an invitation to the public to communicate such particulars of fraud at the late election as may assist the committee in ferreting out the guilty ones. In this invitation, the information is conveyed that such facts have become known to the committee as to warrant them in probing the matter to the bottom, which it is earnestly hoped they may do.

COESSE.

Another Terrible Accident—Litigation Blown Over—Other News.

Correspondence of The Sentinel.

COESSE, Ind., Nov. 29.—Another terrible accident occurred west of here on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad, near Page's crossing, Saturday evening. Mr. Schultz, an old and esteemed gentleman, and father of Mrs. Hanner, residing north of this place, was struck by the westward bound accommodation and instantly killed. His head was crushed in a shocking manner. No blame is laid to the employes of the road, it is understood, as every effort was made to stop the train, but it was impossible, in time to avert the horrible catastrophe. Mr. Schultz was an old and highly respected citizen. His death is a loss to the community.

Mrs. Tobey passed a few days with friends here.

The young men have organized a boating club.

Mrs. Emrick's sale took place at her residence south of here last Saturday.

Coesse was all excitement over an anticipated law suit last week, but the parties concerned arranged matters to their mutual satisfaction, and the excitement subsided.

Steve Clark, jr., grins, laughs and is mightily tickled all over. The cause thereof is a bouncing boy.

Our Navy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 39.—Chief Easby, of the naval bureau of construction and repair, reports the amount appropriated for the fiscal year 1879-80, $1,500,000; amount expended, $1,400,000. The report gives the present number and class of vessels comprising our navy as follows: In commission, steamers, 29; sailing ships, 4; monitors, 8; torpedo boats, 2; total, 43. In ordinary, steamers, 18; sailing vessels, 8; monitors, 7. Receiving ships, 3; sailing ships 3; monitors, 1. Store ships, steamers, 1; sailing ships, 3. On stocks, steamers, 5; sailing ships, 1; monitors, 4; iron clads, 3; repairing steamers, 9. At the naval academy, sailing ships, 3 monitors, 1. Public marine school, sailing ships, 1; tugs of all kinds at yards and stations, 25. Total number of vessels, 139. In concluding the report, Chief Easby says: A brief inspection of the foregoing list of vessels will show the necessity of an increase in the number of efficient vessels for the navy. The finishing of five monitors and two crushing ships now commenced, and the improvement and repairs to the Dictator are of first importance. I respectfully recommend the building of two armed ships of displacement of 5,500 tons each, and three unarmed gun boats having a displacement of 700 tons. The estimated cost of these vessels under this bureau is $2,900,000, but an appropriation of only $1,500,000 will be required for the first year.

BLUFFTON.

Death of an Estimable Young Lady—Hart's Minstrels.

Correspondence of The Sentinel.

BLUFFTON, Nov. 30.—Miss Augusta Ernst, sister of W. H. Ernst, of this place, died near Liberty Center on Monday morning. She was a lady of rare intelligence, and one of the best teachers in the county.

Hart's minstrels to-morrow night.

Fair for the benefit of the St. Joseph's church soon. Buy a ticket and draw—well, a blank at least.

A Detective's Story.

There is a story told of a lady and gentleman traveling together on an English railroad. They were strangers to each other. Suddenly the gentleman said:

"Madam, I will trouble you to look out of the window for a few minutes; I am going to make some changes in my wearing apparel."

"Certainly, sir," she replied with great politeness, rising and turning her back upon him. In a short time he said:

"Now, madam, my change is completed, and you may resume your seat."

When the lady turned she beheld her male companion transformed into a dashing lady with a heavy veil over her face.

"Now, sir, or madam, whichever you are," said the lady, "I must trouble you to look out of the window, for I also have some changes to make in my apparel."

"Certainly, madam," and the gentleman in lady's attire immediately complied.

"Now, sir, you may resume your seat."

To his great surprise, on resuming his seat, the gentleman in female attire found his lady companion transformed into a man. He laughed and said:

"It appears that we are both anxious to escape recognition. What have you done? I have robbed a bank."

"And I," said the whilom lady, as he dexterously fettered his companion's wrist with a pair of handcuffs, "I am Detective J——, of Scotland Yard, and in female apparel have shadowed you for two days—now," drawing a revolver, "keep still."

Painting Unveiled.

WHEELING, Dec. 1.—There was a large assemblage at the opera house in this city last night to witness the unveiling of an oil painting of the Chicago republican convention, by J. A. Faris, an artist of considerable celebrity of this city. The picture was painted for a large number of the personal and political friends of A. W. Campbell, esq., editor of the Intelligencer, who was chairman of the West Virginia delegation at Chicago, and it was formally presented to-night, Dr. Thos. H. Logan being the orator of the occasion. The picture is considered a very striking reproduction of the main features of the convention, General Garfield's face being especially life-like, Mr. Campbell, in receiving and acknowledging the testimonial recounted the reminiscences and incidents of the convention, and referred to the right of private judgment that has grown out of it, as the accepted doctrine hereafter of the republican party. At the close Colonel Sterling, secretary of the meeting, read a number of letters from distinguished citizens of the state who were unable to be present.

THE AGED.—Mental and physical debility of the aged begins with loss of appetite and sleep. These two potent causes of premature and rapid decline have their origin in DEFECTIVE NUTRITION and IMPOVERISHED BLOOD. All other ailments may be warded off if these be restored to a condition of health. To accomplish this beneficent purpose, MALT BITTERS are superior to all other forms of malt and medicine. They are rich in bone and fat-producing materials. They vitalize with new life the process of digestion. Shoaff's gallery has gained phenomenal popularity since it was thrown open to the public and the patronage is daily on the increase. It is the intention of the enterprising proprietor to bring the art of photography in this city up to a higher standard than at present, and his efforts in this direction will undoubtedly be successful, as he possesses a thorough knowledge of his profession and is painstaking. Everything that leaves his establishment passes under his eye, and if the least defect is found, the work is retained. He is assisted by one of the finest operators in the country and on the whole his is the finest and best equipped gallery in the city.

Some four or five weeks ago a gentleman living in Defiance, Ohio, lost a pocket book containing notes and accounts to the amount of $15,000 and hunted for it in every place imaginable. He finally offered a reward of $100 to the lucky party who would find and restore the book to him, but this even failed to bring forth the hidden treasure. Yesterday Ed. Anderson, a brakeman on the Wabash road, went into the woods near Defiance to procure some wood with which to start a fire in the caboose, and while kicking around in the snow unearthed a large pocket book, which, upon being opened, proved to be the one lost by the Defiance man. Ed. will deliver the book to-day as he passes through Defiance and two souls will be made happy—one in the recovery of his possessions and the other with his well earned reward.

THE REUNION

Of the Old Gallant One Hundred and Twenty-ninth Regiment.

Col. C. A. Zollinger Presented With a Handsome Badge by the Members.

Songs, Music, Toasts, Tales, Help to Pass a Pleasant Evening.

The annual reunion of the survivors of the 129th Regt. Ind. Vol. Infantry was held yesterday at the city hall. The meeting was called to order by C. A. Zollinger, president of the association. A report of the condition of the organization was made by Adjt. E. G. Melendy, secretary.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Capt. James Harper; vice-president, T. M. McDonald; treasurer, Col. C. A. Zollinger; secretary, Adjt. E. G. Melendy.

On motion of Capt. Harper, a committee, composed of one from each company, was appointed to work in connection with the secretary in preparing a complete roster of the survivors of the regiment, as follows:

Capt. W. H. Cole, Co. A; Dennis Monnahan, Co. B; W. S. Pardee, Co. C; Capt. T. M. McDonald, Co. D; Lieut. M. L. Duck, Co. E; J. O. McNabb, Co. F; Geo. Reichart, Co. G; A. F. Pinchin, Co. H; James Humphrey, Co. I; J. Q. Washburn, Co. C.

On motion of Capt. Harper, the secretary was instructed to notify the committee of their appointment to assist him in completing a roster of the regiment.

In the evening the surviving members of the regiment and invited guests assembled at Fox's restaurant where an elegant banquet was served. The champagne corks popped with much frequency, and the choicest brands of cigars were placed between the teeth of the gathered company. After supper the gentlemen adjourned to the parlors above, where Judge Robert Lowry presided.

Judge Lowry's style of presiding suited all present and his interpretation of Christian Zollinger's German speech brought out roar after roar of laughter, and his assistance in helping those unaccustomed to speaking was unique though favorably commented upon by many.

After several instrumental and vocal selections, Captain Harper, in a lengthy and very interesting address, recited the four years experience of the gallant 129th in the field. The captain graphically pictured the hardships undergone by the boys and was frequently and loudly applauded. He closed his remarks by presenting in behalf of the regiment a handsome gold badge to Colonel Zollinger, their old commander. The badge bears the following inscription: "Rasaca, Atlanta, Franklin, Nashville, Kingston; Col. C. A. Zollinger, from his comrades of the 129th Indiana Volunteers, Nov. 30, 1880, anniversary of the battle of Franklin, sixteen years ago."

The badge is made with five bars containing the names of the battles participated in by the regiment, to which was suspended a very handsome medallion, shield-shaped.

Mayor Zollinger responded in a happy speech, which abounded in many sad, as well as happy, remembrances, greatly relished by his old comrades in arms.

Toasts were next in order which we give in the order presented:

FIRST TOAST: TO THE SURVIVORS OF THE 129TH IND. VOL. IN'FTY.

Responded to by Adjutant E. G. Melendy, who spoke of Chas. Case, the first colonel of the regiment, in the highest terms, but his health having failed it devolved on the "little left-handed blacksmith," C. A. Zollinger, to take command. Mention was made of the fact that there was not a state in the Union but what contained living representatives of the regiment, some of them holding responsible and honorable positions, showing the fact that meritorious soldiers were not forgotten as citizens.

SECOND TOAST: TO THE LIVING AND DEAD, REPRESENTATIVES OF ALL REGIMENTS, HERE THIS EVENING.

Responded to by Capt. F. F. Boltz, who spoke in glowing terms of the different organizations that left the old 12th congressional district, and also of the honored living representatives of those organizations, but when the captain spoke of the dead in his touching style the feeling was indescribable.

Tom Sullivan gave the boys "Marching Through Georgia" in his ringing bass voice and everybody joined in the chorus. The Symmes brothers also favored the company with several instrumental selections.

The utmost good feeling prevailed, and the boys shook one another by the hand as they compared former experience underwent in defense of our glorious Union.

Taken on the whole, this was one of the grandest times in the annals of re-unions, and seemed more like a band of brothers congregated to participate in the good things of this life. May the survivors of the gallant 129th live long to enjoy many more such occasions, is the wish of all their friends.

The next annual meeting will be held at Auburn, Indiana, August 5, 1881.

THE SENTINEL.

The first page of THE SENTINEL to-day does not present as neat appearance as would have been the case had not an accident happened the forms. In lifting the page of type from the elevator, after the first edition had been printed, the form was allowed to fall to the basement, effectually putting the matter in pi. The reading public, however, will not lose but little news, owing to the extra force at once set at the cases, and the effect of the accident is more of appearance than of matter. The advertisers, who fail to see their notices in to-day's issue are notified that they will appear to-morrow as usual.

PERSONAL MENTION.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE NEW EVANGELINE.

The Rice company appeared last evening at the Grand in the newly constructed "Evangeline" extravaganza, and were greeted with one of the finest audiences of the season, and, judging from the continued applause, every one enjoyed the fun. When we say that every member of the troupe did their best to please, and that the acting and singing throughout were good, we do not fear contradiction from any one who witnessed last night's performance. Mr. Harry Hunter, as the Lone Fisherman, introduced some new and amusing incidents in his part. Mr. George Fortescue, as Catherine, is simply immense. Miss Verona Jarbeau is the new Evangeline this season, and captivated the audience by her winsome manner and sweet singing, while Miss Louise Searle, as Gabriel, gave the utmost satisfaction. The company appears in Lafayette to-night.

"THE STRATEGISTS."

To night Clinton Hall's "Strategists" appear at the Grand and will undoubtedly be greeted with a large audience. The Boston Home Journal, in speaking of this company, says:

"Clinton Hall's 'Strategists,' which came among us unheralded and unsung, numbers in its ranks ten really talented artists, and the entertainment would make the God Momus himself grow green with envy, could he witness their revels. Laughter long, loud and continuous, peal upon peal of laughter of that hearty kind that is popularly supposed to open the nails from our coffin, nightly greets this most comical entertainment. We defy the man or woman most thoroughly possessed with the blue devils to sit through it unmoved. The situations are intensely funne, and what is better unbackneyed."

City Hospital Donations.

The following is a list of donations to the city hospital for the month of November:

Apples, Mrs. L. Bond; two quarts cranberries and a ham, Mrs. J. Conger; four jars marmalade, W. Pytre; turkey, Mrs. J. L. John Smurr.

In a short conversation with John Smurr this morning the following items were gathered: He said: "I do not think I had a fair and impartial trial; think the jury was prejudiced against me, on account of my former life; never committed a crime and did nothing worse than drink and associate with bad men and women; do not know how it will be in regard to my getting a new trial, but hope I shall for I am innocent of the crime of murder; what I did was in self defence; would not have hit Myers but thought he would kill either myself or my brother; do not like the idea of going to the penitentiary for life, while I think myself innocent; my confinement here is just the same as the other prisoners; have the same liberties and privileges as the rest; have been treated good by all connected with the jail. He thinks everybody is down on him as he has received no visitors except a few of his relatives; I have been furnished with some newspapers and am thankful for the same; my brother is too young to realize the situation in which we are placed; do not think they can convict Perry, and am sure he has had punishment enough already for the part he took in the affair."

The rest of the conversation was in regard to his father's death, which occurred shortly after the arrest of the boys. He called at the jail Saturday and brought them some clean clothing and promised to come on the following Monday to get their dirty onces. It was while on his way to the prison that he fell dead on the streets of our city. Perry stood by during the interview, but never said a word; when asked a question John replied for him.

FROM THE PEOPLE.

Card from Mr. Hillegass.

To the Editor of The Sentinel.

I noticed an article in the Morning Gazette concerning my private secretary. The article refers in one place to one George Astry, and in another to one Reichert. Mr. Astry has never been in my employment, nor in any way connected with my office as secretary. Mr. Reichert I have never known. Respectfully,
JERRY HILLEGASS.

Death of a Good Man.

Political malice has ceased, or pretended to cease, at the portal of the grave of this good old man. Blue Jeans Williams is pretendedly the sincerest mourner over his remains. If men who do this class of infamous detraction have any conscience, it should give them trouble; and if they have any self-respect, it is difficult to see how they can help hating themselves as heartily as they are hated and despised by the decent element of the community in which they exist. New lamps, new hand painted china, new cut glass, new gold band china, new decorated tea and dinner sets, new Majolica ware, new plated silver ware, new toilet ware, new compliments of our three jolly dogs, at Ward's new store, on West Columbia street.
